

Mitigation-Related Restoration & Management of California's Maritime Chaparral

January 20, 2005
Elkhorn Slough National Estuarine Research Reserve
Coastal Training Program
Moss Landing, California

9:00 – Grey Hayes, Coastal Training Program

Welcome and review information from 2002 maritime chaparral workshop

Deborah Hillyard, California Department of Fish and Game

The regulatory framework and protection of maritime chaparral

-break –

10:30– Tamara Klug, SAIC

Facilitating recovery of a long-disturbed maritime chaparral site in Santa Barbara County

Tami Nakahara, San Jose State University

Management Strategies for Central Maritime Chaparral

Mike Vasey, San Francisco State University

Adaptive management in the context of restoring maritime chaparral

12:15 – Lunch

1:00 – Discussion

2:00 – 5:00 Field trip to Fort Ord