

California Department of Parks and Recreation
Carrying Capacity Regulation

California Public Resources Code 5019.5 says:

“Before any park or recreational area developmental plan is made, the department shall cause to be made a land carrying capacity survey of the proposed park or recreational area, including in such survey such factors as soil, moisture, and natural cover.”