

Elkhorn Slough Water Quality Workshop

June 2, 2015

1 – 4:30 p.m.

Moss Landing Marine Labs

Agenda

1:00

Program begins

Welcome

Dave Feliz, Manager, Elkhorn Slough National Estuarine Research Reserve (ESNERR)

Land Use Patterns in the Watershed

Mark Silberstein, Executive Director, Elkhorn Slough Foundation

Historical Ecology of Wetlands in the Vicinity of Elkhorn Slough

Andrea Woolfolk, Stewardship Coordinator, ESNERR

Water Quality Monitoring and Trends – NERR Data

John Haskins, Water Quality Scientist, ESNERR

-Break-

Water Quality Monitoring and Trends – LOBO Data

Ken Johnson, Senior Scientist, Monterey Bay Aquarium Research Institute

Eutrophication assessment of the estuary

Brent Hughes, David H. Smith Research Conservation Fellow, UCSC

Ecological studies of negative effects of eutrophication

Kerstin Wasson, Research Coordinator, ENSERR

Opportunities and Constraints for Improving Agricultural Runoff: Data and Practices

Dale Huss, Production Manager, Ocean Mist Farms

Opportunities and Constraints for Improving Agricultural Runoff: Data and Practices

Kirk Schmidt, Executive Director, Preservation, Inc.

Closing

Dave Feliz, Manager, ESNERR

4:30

Program ends